OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 5 December 1978

1. (Unclassified - MDC) LEGISLATION Received a call from Jim Stimpson, OMB, regarding the "Privacy of Medical Records Information Act." I advised him that I had been in touch with Leslie Greenspan, of his office, who was by in large aware of our actions to date. I described to him our anticipated remedies to which he offered no objection.

3. (Unclassified - MG) CONSTITUENT Received a call from Ron Farley, in the Atlanta district office of Representative Elliott Levitas (D., Ga.), who wanted to know if a [redacted] works for the Agency. Apparently [redacted] wife, from whom he has been separated for several years, is trying to get in touch with him and she believes he works for the CIA. I told Farley that we can neither confirm nor deny whether [redacted] is employed by CIA, but that I would check, and if he does work for the Agency, I would pass on the message.
